

Dorothy van den Berg was born and raised on this farm property. She and her husband were missionaries in Ivory Coast, West Africa, for 34 years. After retiring, the couple settled in on the old “home place” and enjoyed being in the neighborhood again.

Dorothy’s daughter made the barn quilt with the Dutchman’s puzzle pattern.

