

The farm has been in the family since Herman Gretzinger bought it in 1956. The barn was built in 1903 by someone of German Heritage. Originally used for cows, chicken and hay, it is now used to store farm equipment and hay. Bill has farmed here for 60 years and was the national corn growers champion in 1969.