

The farm was purchased by Lawrence and Gertrude Holzman in 1940 and has stayed in the family ever since. The barn was originally used for dairy, then for beef, and is now used for storage. The structure is made of wood with a stone foundation.

Peter & Margo Holzman
N3871 Holzman Drive
Poynette

