This barn was built in 1909, and it originally housed a stagecoach on the top and had a dairy below. It's now used to store hay and other farm items.

Jennifer Blau's grandmother was an avid quilter, and the "log cabin" pattern was her specialty. This quilt pattern, "Log Cabin Window," was designed in her honor.

