

Ring Farm
W5195 County G
Rio

The farm has been in the family for 23 years, since Florian and Helen Ring bought the property in 1988. The barn was taken down in the Merrimac area when they were making powder in the area. It was then rebuilt on the current location. The wood and cement block structure was built by a German builder.