

Hillerbrandts owned the property before 1937. George Carpenter was the owner 1937-1942. Other owners were Frank Gonzagowski and Aaron & Arthur Farnworth. Lee Hoppe bought the property at a bank sale in 2000. He cleared the fields and used the rocks to build a 47’ high fireplace in the middle of the home.

The current owners, Larry Whitney and Maureen Murphy, bought the property in 2006. Note that their barn quilt pattern represents the first letters of their last names.

