More photos…

This farm property has been in the family for 65 years and was purchased by Edwin Blau. Edwin married Clara in 1956 and they had six children.

The original barn burned down when the owner's son lit a match to chase out a mouse. The barn in the photo was a ready-made one from Sears and came in two sections!