

This barn was built in the 1850's and purchased by Shon and Sara Sample in 2010. They are the first "non-family" to own the property, which is on both the National and State Historic Registries.

The barn is constructed of wood with a field stone foundation and originally housed livestock and hay. Currently the barn is used for storage.