

In 1902 A.C. Sharpee purchased this farm property, and the barn was built approximately three years later. It's a post and beam wood construction with a stone foundation. It was moved from another farm about 100 years ago.