Reports from Visiting Legislative Officials- None present

WCA Update of County Issues - Kyle Christianson & Mark O’Connell

- The legislature is out of session so limited activity is expected until January 2019
- Legislative study committees are meeting to develop potential legislation
- An update on the special election and the state budget process was provided
- Recently the Wisconsin Taxpayers Alliance combined with the Policy Forum to form the Wisconsin Policy Forum. Dale Knapp who was a lead researcher for the Wisconsin Taxpayer Alliance was recently hired by Wisconsin Counties Association to pull together data for local governments (i.e. Green Book)

Open Discussion of County Issues- None

PROGRAM: Focus on Cooperative Extension: A Discussion on nExt Gen Implementation and the Merger with UW Madison

- Shannon Carpenter, UWEX External Relations Director, provided an overview of the UW Cooperative Extension mission, budget, and programming
- Matt Hanson, UWEX Assistant Dean, provided the following update on Cooperative UWEX's nEXT Gen implementation:
 - nExt Gen was officially implemented on January 1, 2018
 - UWEX budgets documents are now aligned with county budget process (calendar year)
 - Retained UWEX county presence in all 72 counties
 - Developed a flat fee structure for UWEX county educators
 - Consolidated administrative functions into state funded, Area Extension Directors (AED)
 - In the process of coordinating a statewide situational analysis to determine educational needs across counties in order to inform future resource allocation
 - All UWEX educators have developed plans of work that will be monitored throughout the year to track progress
 - Cooperative UWEX now has a balanced budget
 - Greater emphasis on distance education
 - 50 UWEX positions have been hired or are in progress
 - At Full Time Equivalent (FTE) limit of 220 positions which roughly equates to three educators per county
 - It was recognized that there have been significant issues associated with the nEXT Gen implementation and UWEX will work to address those issues including better communication with counties going forward
- Casey Nagy, Project Manager with UW Madison provided an update on the merger between Cooperative Extension and UW-Madison
 - There should be no noticeable changes regarding county interactions with Cooperative UWEX as part of the merger. The changes are structural and internal.
 - Cooperative Extension will transition to UW Madison as a fully functioning unit with their own Dean.
 - As a benefit of the merger, UW-Madison is hoping to better connect their research/resources with the needs of counties/tribes i.e. opioid epidemic.
 - County representatives serve on the transition team
 - The decision-making authority for Cooperative UWEX will transfer to UW-Madison on July 1, 2018, but the official transition date will be July 1, 2019.
- Q&A followed the presentations and updates
